

PERSONAL & CLASSROOM AKHLAQ

PERSONAL AKHLAQ

“Whoever joins himself (to another) in a good cause shall have a share of it, and whoever joins himself (to another) in an evil cause shall have the responsibility of it, and Allah controls all things.”

[4:85]

At the Madressa we expect all our students to have the best Akhlaq! Remember you are always responsible for your own Akhlaq!

In accordance with the above, students are expected to display the following Akhlaq in all classes and all situations:

- Always be your best and do your best
- Treat all others and their property with courtesy & respect
- Listen to your teacher and to your classroom colleagues when they are speaking
- Follow all the instructions given by your teacher
- Make sure you bring all appropriate materials to class
- Be on time for all lessons and activities

The above etiquettes are aimed to establish a fair and equal classroom environment where everyone can participate without any fear.

CLASSROOM AKHLAQ

“Treat others similar to the way you would like for them to treat you”

[Imam Hasan (as): Bihar al-Anwar]

- Each week you are expected to bring: your manual; pens; syllabus; Homework Diary etc.
- An Islamic dress code should be observed by all [see below]
- Food, drink, chewing gum etc are only to be consumed during break time.
- Classrooms must be left as clean as they were at the beginning of the day
- Valuable items (mobile phones, iPods etc) are to be kept switched off and stored at the bottom of your bag. All items are brought in at your own risk. Confiscated items can only be collected by parents/guardians from the Madressa office.
- All students are expected to behave in an ordinary fashion and not to disrupt the class during class times.
- Students to behave in a professional manner during break times and not cause any harm or damage to anyone or any part of the building. You are responsible for your own actions/behaviour and the Madressa/Mission will not take any liability for any accidents or injuries caused by the child's behaviour.

The Madressa fully expects all its students to ensure that these rules are observed at all times and in all situations.

At the Madressa we expect all our students to behave appropriately with the best Akhlaq at all times. Remember you are responsible for your own behaviour! Inappropriate behaviour will not be tolerated and in some circumstances can lead to suspension or even dismissal from future classes.

Unacceptable Akhlaq is as follows:

- Running in corridors or between classrooms
- Stealing
- Shouting
- Possessing an offensive weapon
- Swearing
- Damaging property
- Bullying [see below]
- Selling goods
- Smoking
- Possessing, distributing or using illegal drugs

What is Bullying?

- Bullying is UNACCEPTABLE
- Bullying is ANY ACTION that which HURTS or THREATENS another person physically, mentally or emotionally.
- Bullying is being UNFRIENDLY, EXCLUDING PEOPLE or TEASING
- Bullying is PUSHING, HITTING, NAME CALLING or SPREADING RUMOURS
- Bullying is MISUSING THE INTERNET, EMAILS, SMS, MEDIA MESSAGING, SOCIAL MEDIA or any other electronic interface.

What to do if you are or you know someone who is being bullied:

- You must always speak to an adult – either a teacher, parent or member of the Madressa administration, who will be willing to help.
- Know that any bullying incident is treated in the strictest of confidence and will be dealt with both quickly and appropriately.

What is the Islamic dress code for the Madressa?

Girls: Loose clothing with legs and arms fully covered, head scarf covering the neck part with no makeup or nail varnish and minimal or discrete jewellery..

Boys: No shorts, jewellery (i.e. Earrings) or hats (aside from Muslim prayer hats) / hoods.

I can confirm that I have read and understood the rules on akhlaq and agree to abide by them.
